

products

GAGGENAU

Exclusive built-in household appliances brand, which is part of BSH Bosch Siemens Hausgeräte GmbH, has had more than 130 years of tradition. Gaggenau brings to the households the highest quality, unique design and technology quite common in professional kitchens. Gaggenau appliances are characterized by perfect design, easy operation and perfect functions. The main products are brand Gaggenau oven, equipped with not only all imaginable ways of heating, but also many practical additional functions. The product portfolio also includes several models of steam pipes, which are suitable for the preparation of healthy meals and are a regular part of today's modern kitchens. Furthermore, this German brand manufactures hot plates, grills and fryers designed for variable ordering food. Gaggenau also brings style and comfort to the preservation of food. Refrigerators, freezers and wine cooler are available in various widths, with a range of combinations, fully integrated kitchen furniture.

